

John has a lot on his plate.

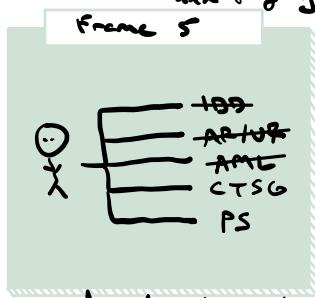

He made a to-do list on Outlook

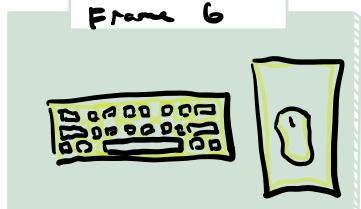

A couple hours into work, he wants to take a break and play games

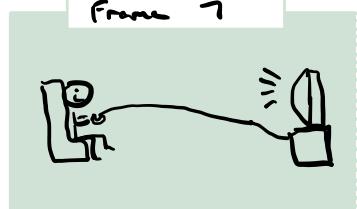

His SMART CALENDAR light tells him he still has a lot left to do

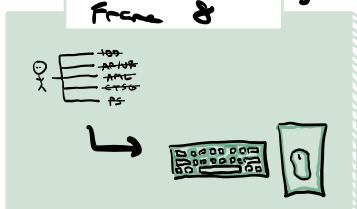

He decides to get more off his plate before gaming

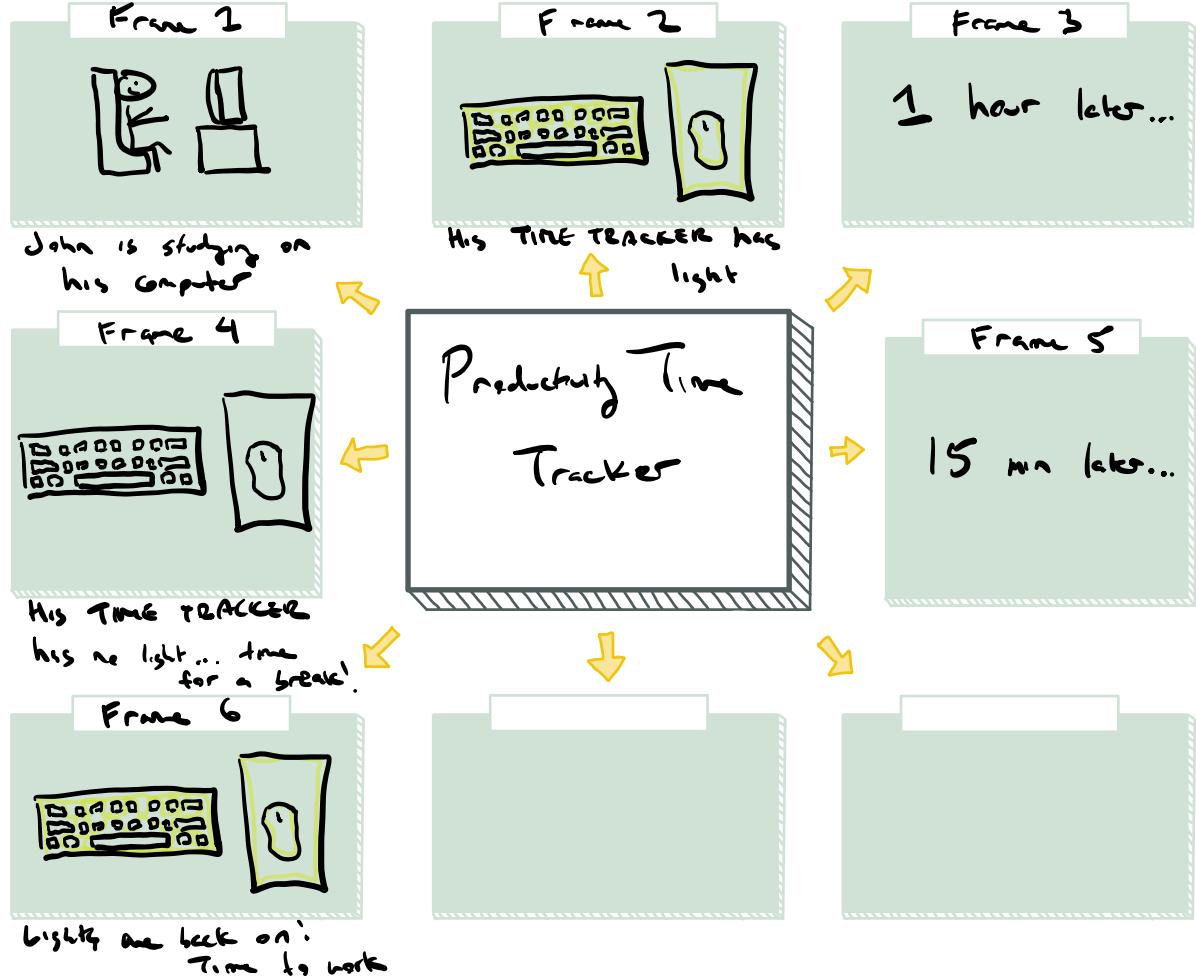

His light is yellow now

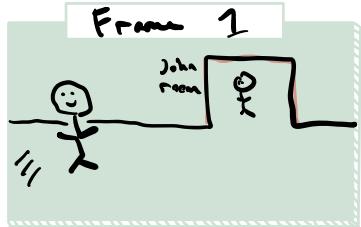

He plays games

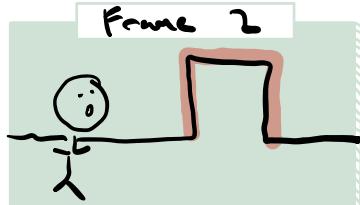

Goes and finishes...
light is green

John's roommate wants to hang out with John

He sees the light is red!
John is busy!

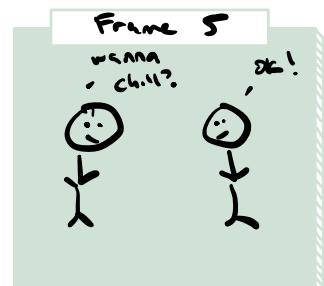

He leaves John
alone for now

Now it's green! John is not busy!
